Mallhaus Inc. Employee Handbook (Excerpts) MALLHAUS INC. INTERNAL HANDBOOK Revised Guidelines – Circulation #7

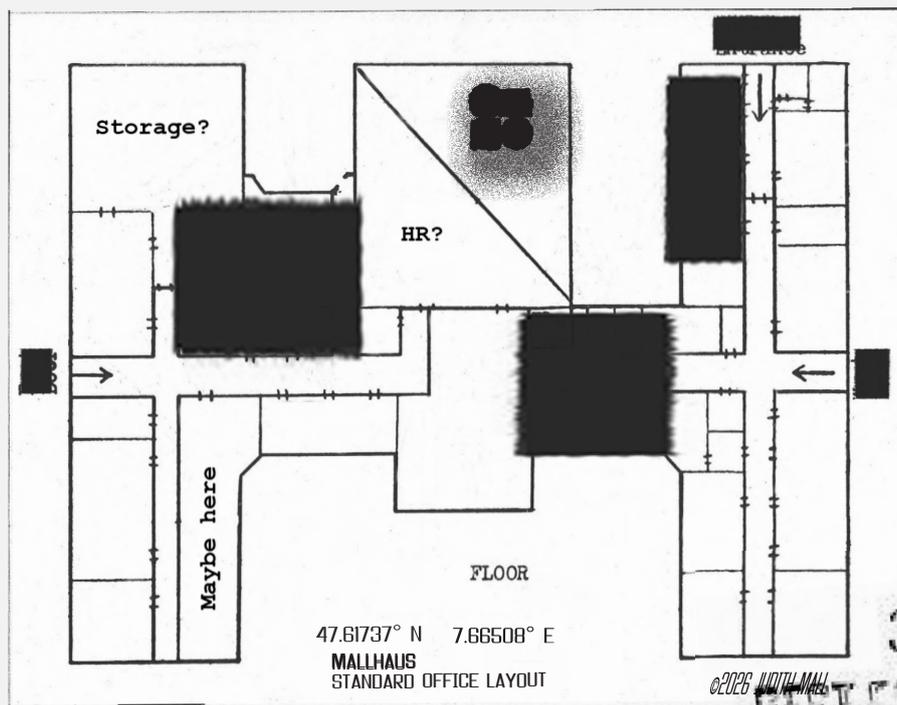

SECTION 1: CONDUCT

- Whispering is permitted only in approved corridors.
- Whispers in Hallway 4A are to be logged in the shared document.
- Do not announce new ideas until you've carried them long enough to see if they hold.
- Never argue with confidence-disruptors.
- Departmental disagreements may be held in the Neutral Room (if available).
- Always trust the idea that makes your shoulders drop.
- Enthusiasm, even brief, is a valid metric.
- Effort is not always a sign of quality.
- Some projects must not be explained, even to yourself.
- The supply cabinet is off-limits to non-material inquiries.
- Forgetting is not a breach. Remembering without cause may be.

SECTION 2: PRESENCE

- Employees are expected to maintain awareness, not visibility.
- You may leave the building at any time, but you must choose the correct door.
- Avoid locking eyes with anything reflective during transition phases.
- External communications must remain gentle.
- Performance reviews are conducted in silence and based on aura impressions.
